

Board Member Opportunities at Blackford Capital

Board membership is a good way for skilled and talented executives to use their wisdom to help companies flourish, while seeing personal benefits. Blackford Capital boards are advisory boards and thus serve as a resource to the portfolio company management teams, as well as to the Blackford Capital team, with the goal of ensuring prosperity, value, and ethical standards for the company to create a return for Blackford Capital's limited partners.

Board memberships are compensated positions. Compensation is provided in an honorarium for board meetings, calls and committee work, as well as ownership stake in the portfolio company in which they work. Travel expenses are covered. Expected commitment is two years.

What is the Purpose of the Board?

1) Oversee the performance of the CEO and other senior management that serve the interest of all investors and Blackford Capital. Help hire and support the CEO and management team when necessary to ensure we have the best team possible

- Help support and develop the management team
- Create mentor / mentee relationships between the board and the management team
- Grow the capability of the management team and hold them accountable

2) Ensure prosperity, value, and ethical standards for the company

3) Provide oversight in the development, formation, and execution of:

- Strategic plans
- Financial and organizational goals
- Review and oversight of standards and polices to ensure the company is operating with the highest standards
- Long term strategy
- Strength and functionality of the management team

4) Ask probing questions and think through worst case scenarios to prepare the company for ultimate growth and development

A good board:

- Needs unity and occasional effective dissent
- Has the ability to govern but not over manage
- Acts in good faith and in the best interest of the company; not for the Board Members' personal gain
- Serves with a fiduciary mindset at all times
- Bonds and trusts each other

Raving Reviews

“The strategic vision that Blackford Capital brings to these portfolio companies is unparalleled in the lower middle market and gives a decided competitive advantage. This allows me, as a board member, to have measurable impact on these companies which has led to appreciable growth on the bottom line.”

– Blackford Board Member

“The Blackford team has shown a lot of skill in working with the management of our portfolio company, striving especially to preserve the legacy of the firm while supporting us in our strategic initiatives. We have found them to be an extremely valuable resource, while remaining non-intrusive to our management team.”

– Blackford Board Member

“I doubt this organization could have grown as quickly, or been as successful, without the talent, guidance, and support that the Blackford team has brought to the table. Working with their Managing Directors has been a learning experience on both sides, with mutual respect. We have experience and technical knowledge and they have perspective and strategic frameworks. It’s been a win-win.”

– Portfolio Company CEO

“Blackford Capital has provided a great sounding board for me, particularly as CFO, as we look to pursue strategic acquisitions. Their skill and experience in acquisitions helps me know what I need to focus on in order to prepare us to acquire assets and integrate them seamlessly in order that project has a high likelihood of success.”
